CAREER EXPERIENCE

Former judge, Fred M. Mosely, has the distinction of being the only individual who has been a federal and state prosecutor, criminal defense attorney and civil plaintiff attorney, civil plaintiff and defendant, judge federal and state inmate and federal and state parolee. He created The Laws of Life to help people understand and implement them into their own lives. Judge Mosely has written a number of books; most recently, An Introduction to the Laws of Life. He has taught people from all walks of life, from homeless shelter residents to leaders at national conferences.

His most recent endeavor is as executive producer and presiding judge of Laws of Life Court TV. This is a forum where individuals (believers and non-believers) who have a controversy can bring their dispute to Laws of Life Court and receive a decision based upon one or more Laws of Life, which are all Bible-based. Fred and his wife Jean executive produce and co-host Laws of Life Forum where Laws of Life are applied to current and historical events, as well as the Mosely's Bench podcast.
